LINKS BETWEEN THE NETWORKS

Dan.com was retired on 27 June 2025; its listings now run through Afternic.
Atom sellers can also push listings to Afternic. Sedo has ended its partnership with Atom.
Atom Wholesale offers Atom-listed names to domain investors at reduced prices.
Dynadot and Atom syndicate listings to each other under a July 2026 agreement.

A domain name listed for sale on one network can appear, at different prices, in the search results of every storefront connected to it.

Afternic and Sedo do not publish complete partner lists, so this map shows only the storefronts we could document. Afternic states 100+ resellers and Sedo about 700 partners.
A line means the storefront can display that network's for-sale listings in its domain search. Not affiliated with any marketplace or registrar.
